

WOULD YOU LIKE TO HELP US MAKE A VIDEO THAT MATTERS?

The day after the election, Dan Nichols recorded a new song that encourages all of us to “get to work”. Now, we need your help to bring this call to action to the masses with a video! We want to hear from YOU how you plan to get to work to make sure our brothers and sisters from every walk of life are protected from those forces that seek to undermine the ideals of equality, freedom and justice that we hold so dear.

Here’s what we need from you – pick one of these or do your own thing – let your creativity your energy and your love be your guide:

- 1) PULL OUT THE PIN! The image of the safety pin is a message that we stand with and will protect those who feel vulnerable and afraid after this election. Take a video or a still photo of you putting a safety pin on yourself or someone you care about.
- 2) SHOW ME A SIGN! Make a sign, big enough to read, that tells us something we need to hear to know it is going to be all right. Tell us how you plan to GET TO WORK. Maybe you are donating to Planned Parenthood. Maybe you are sharing a meal with your Muslim neighbors for the first time. Maybe you are running for office. Maybe you are booking a flight to join the women's march on Washington in January. Take a video or a still photo of this and send it to us! Make it pretty! Let your colors show!

- 3) SHOW THE LOVE! Reach out to somebody and give them something sweet. Could be a hug, a flower, a fist bump. Could be your kids, your neighbor, a co-worker, a total stranger!! Take a video or a still photo of this and send it to us!
- 4) TELL A STORY! – get creative and tell a story but only with pictures. Use a sign if need be. For example, I have a son with special needs. He has a helper who works with him at school all day. She is Muslim. She wears a Hijab. She is frightened. We love her like family. Maybe he'll stand close to her and hold a sign saying "this is my teacher and my friend. She makes my world a better place." Take a video or a still photo of this and send it to us!
- 5) JAM THIS SONG!!!! Listen to the song. Get a group of friends, family classmates, or co-workers together and have everyone sing along to the song and belt out their very best "Get to work!" battle cry. Or, make some signs with any of the song lyrics that speak to you. Take a video or a still photo of this and send it to us!

GET TO WORK – MUSIC AND MELODY BY DAN NICHOLS

When the man runnin' the country is dangerous, there's too many people saying there's no place for us, it's time to get to work.

When the leader of the free world grabs women by the crotch and women who voted for him feel no need for this to stop, it's time to get to work.

When 1 percent is riding on the backs of 99, and the middle of the country slides deeper in decline, it's time to get to work.

When there's too many children without good schools, and too many people believin' in a fool, it's time to get to work.

CHORUS – Get close, get uncomfortable. Tell a new story and hold on to hope. Get to work.

When 1 in 3 black boys will see prison one day, and a man who's black gets shot in the back because he runs away, it's time to get to work.

When a man runnin' for president is endorsed by the KKK, and we show up to the voting booth and elect him anyway, it's time to get to work.

Until black lives matter as much as white and a woman's choice is a sacred right, it's time to get to work.

I will not be silent in the face of this man. I will not hold back.

I'll do everything I can! It's time to get to work.

Slavery has only changed, the terms are different but the tune is the same. In a world turned upside down. Emancipate us from this clown. This is our country too – red white black and blue.

Every Muslim, Christian, Jew – no bully takes that from you.

Get to work!
